

manroland Goss web systems Debuts Merged Company at Print 18

Customer-oriented solutions the focus of combined company

During the Print 18 tradeshow in Chicago, September 30th through October 2nd, manroland Goss web systems presented the plan for the future of the company to the print community as a united entity for the first time since the merger of manroland web systems and Goss international in August of 2018.

The message of the company's strategy to create solutions based on customer needs was well-received by the attendees to Print 18, the largest tradeshow in North America this year.

While at the show, customers from the Newspaper, Commercial, Book, and Packaging segments of print were able to connect with the manroland Goss Team regarding everything from new press equipment, press relocations and refurbishment, enhancements, upgrades, and retrofits. Owners of all web offset print brands discussed the innovative strategies put in place for brand-independent parts and service.

"We are grateful for our customers, our partners, and even those in the industry who were just curious about who we are as the new entity, seeking us out at Print 18. It was a great way to spread the word about our focus and dedication to customer profitability, and launch us toward future success," stated Ron Sams, Vice President of Sales for manroland Goss web systems in North America.
