

NEW MARKET-X

We have migrated our online shop MARKET-X to a new software!

With the new shop, we aim to offer you an even better and more efficient shopping experience – featuring clearer navigation, a modern user interface, and new practical functions.

- In the future, each user will require their own personal email address. The use of a shared email address for multiple user accounts will no longer be possible in the new shop.
- Please use the 'Forgot password' function with your email address to set a password for the new shop.
- You can access our new shop as usual at: www.market-x.com
